From the Pastor's Desk...

As Jesus and his disciples were setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt before Jesus, and asked him, "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus responded with a listing of the essential commands of the Jewish Law, which the man said he had already completely followed his entire life.

Jesus, however, did not stop there. He made him an additional offer, an invitation that for the man would be life-changing and transformational in his life. He invites the young man to drop every other life goal, to free himself from all other attachments, to give away his goods and possessions, and then, come and join Jesus and his disciples on their journey. This last offer was certainly far more than the young man expected. He turned it down and sadly walked away.

Jesus was calling this young man to a deeper commitment and a higher level of involvement in discipleship. Jesus invited him to completely change the priorities and direction of his life, which Jesus saw as tied directly to his many possessions and accumulated wealth. In the Gospels from the recent past Sundays, Jesus knew that the other disciples were hampered by their competition among themselves, and their disregard for people considered unimportant. Jesus pointed out what prevented his disciples – and wanna-be disciples – from a total commitment, a clear path forward to an unfettered relationship to God.

God wants us to be aware that so much in our lives prevent us from drawing closer to Him. Our attitude that sometimes God expects too much of us can make us wary and reluctant to undergo a life-changing transformation that genuine faith offers us. Gaining eternal life is not a competition, a reward or rank with privilege. It is a surrender and openness to what God would have us do. He calls us to a fuller life that is not loaded down with distractions, multiple priorities, or a quest for more of what the world, this life, has to offer.

Have a good week!

Fr. Bill Arnold

From the Desk of Your Music Minister: I would like to thank all of you for the warm welcome that I have received here at Holy Spirit. I am very happy to be here and am excited to make beautiful music in this worship space. As I get the lay of the land and an understanding of how things are done, I thank you in advance for your patience. My ultimate goal for the music ministry is to bring people who come to worship closer to Christ. I thank you for your wonderful and continued participation at Mass, which helps me to work harder to achieve that goal.

Calling all Musicians! In the pew, you are encouraged to participate at Mass in both the spoken word and the sung word. Have you thought about participating in a different way, such as joining the music ministry? If you have a voice, or think you may, our choir is inviting you to join our ranks in giving your voice to God in praise of His name. Choir rehearsal is Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. Just show up.

If you feel your voice is not the best place for you to serve, try out our bell choir. You don't have to read music, there are many ways around. You only have to know how to count in 2s, 3s, and 4s. Bell Choir rehearsal is Thursday evenings at 6:30 p.m. Just show up.

I understand this may be intimidating, and you may have concerns about reading music or not knowing much. Our music ministry consists of all levels, some are very well versed in reading music, while others have very little knowledge. You will be in good hands, and we will work to get you on the right track. I understand this is a time commitment, or sounds as such, but I encourage you to at least try it out and see what this music ministry has to offer you.

This is my personal invitation to you to join our growing music ministry. If you have any questions about joining the ministry, please email me at music@holyspiritcolumbus.org.

Yours in Christ's song,

Adam Fehrenbach M.S.M.

Our Walk-A-Thon is scheduled for October 19th at 12:30 p.m. and we will be walking down Yearling Road to raise money for our tuition assistance program. Students will be at the doors after Masses this weekend accepting donations for this cause. Thank you all for your prayers and support.

Shared Parish Information

October is Respect Life Month. No single issue is more identified with Catholic belief in our nation today than is respect for all human life. We choose to live a faith which recognizes the dignity and worth of every human life – born and unborn.

The horizon of this belief must be broad, however, and our vision far-reaching. Respect for life begins, certainly, with sacred regard for the yet to be born life in the womb, from the moment of conception. Life is a sacred gift from God, entrusted to our love and care. This is a "bedrock" belief, but it does not end there.

We are a Church that must be spokespeople and defenders of life whenever and wherever its value and beauty have been denied and neglected. That includes:

- Compassion for the weak, sick, and elderly, as well as for the handicapped and mentally challenged;
- Responsibility for the poor and homeless, as well as the immigrants and unwanted in our midst;
- A rejection of war and violence in all its forms, which damages the lives and communities of so many today;
- Respect for the beauty of nature, the vineyard of the Lord, and protection for its resources for the benefit of all humanity;
- Special concern for the weakest among us, children especially. They simply can't defend themselves;
- Compassion and mercy – not incarceration and deportation – for children and families who come to our great land.

This Week's Insert: Healing After Abortion: Read the insert in this week's bulletin: "Bridges of Mercy for Healing After Abortion." One important belief must always be central for all Catholics and Christians: Jesus condemned the sin, He wished to forgive and save sinners.

Oftentimes, over-zealous individuals conclude that there are some sins which are "unforgiveable." For various reasons, family conflicts often involve individual members permanently withholding forgiveness and reconciliation from each other. All of us have heard this, and we know how common it is.

Women – and men – who have had an abortion in their past, express genuine regret and find it difficult to forgive themselves. Some in the "Right to Life" movement have unconsciously held women, especially, to a higher standard of responsibility, and social shame.

It's long overdue to clear the air. God wills forgiveness and healing, not condemnation and shame. No sin is unforgiveable, and the pro-life movement must, with one voice, seek to support such healing, not foster vilification or isolation of such individuals.

Next Week is World Mission Sunday: We are called to be part of the Church's missionary efforts, supporting mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who provide service to those in need. As Catholics around the world, gather around the table of the Lord, let us pray for the Church's worldwide missionary work, and offer financial help through The Society for the Propagation of the Faith for vulnerable communities throughout Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

Hospital Visits – Once again, an important reminder: If you find yourself a patient at a local hospital, the best thing to do is to notify the parish office at St. Philip or Holy Spirit if you request a visit from Father Arnold or Sister Joan. If you are unable to do this yourself, make sure a family member or friend knows to call the parish. Recently, parishioners have experienced a hospital stay and the parish only finds out after the hospital treatment is over.

MARK THIS DATE

To All the Men of St. Philip and Holy Spirit Parishes: You are encouraged to save the date, February 23, 2019, for an inspiring and uplifting opportunity to deepen your faith. The Columbus Diocese Catholic Conference for Men will be held on that date in the new Cardinal Building at the fairgrounds. Plans are being formulated with Fr. Arnold to encourage and allow as many men as possible to attend. Car pools will be discussed and formed to assist with transportation to and from the site. Financial assistance for the cost of the conference will be available if needed, to allow no obstacle to stand in your way. Please give this some serious consideration.
