From the Pastor's Desk...

Today's Gospel is difficult to hear. It is even more difficult to live. But it is based on the absolute power of divine love over evil and hatred. Consider briefly what Jesus asks his disciples to do:

"Offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well ...give to the one who asks of you and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow... love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you... be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Imagine the disciples, trying to take Jesus seriously! It is hard to do, because even today many cringe at the idea that someone demanding your heavy coat should also receive the sweater underneath. It sounds absurd, that one's own efforts for friendship with others should extend primarily to the hostile and unfriendly, because there exists no reward in treating kindly one's family, friends, and other admirers.

Today's Gospel calls each who would be a disciple to go against not only one's own inner feelings, e.g., the need to get even, but also the support of the crowd to do so. Feelings of anger and the urge for revenge come from ourselves internally as well as from others ready to support those urges. It easily suspends one's own faith and better judgment, when the "common sense" of peers and faces in the crowd support retribution.

Hatred is wide spread. It can be present in one's own family and extend to enemies we personally do not even know far away. Its power is far reaching and powerfully destructive. That is why Jesus in the Gospel calls for love beyond all measure and beyond common sense. Ignore snide remarks and comments. Overlook injury. Don't waste energy on revenge. Forgive. Always give generously to others. The overwhelming powerful grace of God can enable us to override the irresistible, extensive power of hatred. The perfect love of the Father can overcome the considerable reach of hate and make us practitioners of God's perfect love.

Have a Good Week,
Fr. Bill Arnold

Welcome Father Noble - Father Paul Noble, Diocesan Director for Vocations, will join us for all the Masses at Holy Spirit and St. Philip the weekend of March 1 and March 2, 2014. Father Noble will speak about the vocation to the priesthood. The work of promoting priestly and religious vocations is the responsibility of all in the Church. We are all invited to welcome Father Noble and to join him in this vital ministry of the Church.

Bible Study Explores Social Justice & Scripture: The Holy Spirit winter Bible Study examines the scriptural foundations of Catholic Social Teaching. The theme for this Monday, February 24, is the "Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers." This session will take place from 7:00-8:00 p.m. in the Parish Office. For more information, please contact Mark Butler at 614-861-1521.

Lent Begins on March 5 – The Season of Lent begins in less than 10 days, on Ash Wednesday, March 5th. It is the 40 day season for prayer, fasting, and almsgiving for the poor leading to the celebration of the Sacred Triduum: Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday/Easter Sunday.

The following schedule for Mass has been set for the clustered parishes of Holy Spirit and St. Philip for Ash Wednesday:

- 9:00 a.m. Mass at St. Philip
- 1:00 p.m. Mass at Holy Spirit
- 7:00 p.m. Mass at St. Philip (Fr. Mike Nimocks)
- 7:00 p.m. Mass at Holy Spirit

The Collection at all the Masses on Ash Wednesday will be taken for the benefit of the J.O.I.N. Office (the Joint Office for Inner-City Needs). This office, located on Main Street in Columbus, distributes help and assistance to the needy of Columbus. Although they are not able to fulfill all requests brought to them, the good folks there represent the Catholic Church's desire to serve the poor of Central Ohio. Please be as generous as you can be on this first day of Lent.

Stations of the Cross will be prayed together in the Church at Holy Spirit every Wednesday evening during the Lenten Season. Please plan on attending the Lenten devotion with your fellow parishioners every Wednesday evening beginning March 12 at 7:00 p.m.

Every Thursday evening during Lent, Mass will be celebrated at 7:00 p.m. in the Day Chapel at Holy Spirit Parish. This special, additional Mass time has been set so that people who work might consider coming to Mass as part of their Lenten observance this year. Plan to attend on one or several evenings.
