From the Pastor's Desk. . .

Today is the Feast of Pentecost, fifty days after the celebration of the Resurrection. Today's liturgy is a celebration of the Spirit of God, the energizing, inspiring, and comforting presence of God with us, the Church, until the end of time. The Church of today experiences the same anxiety and apprehension as did the first disciples after the departure of Jesus from this world. But we, like the early disciples, must recognize the overwhelming presence of the Spirit, that Spirit which provides the driving energy to spread the Gospel. It is the same spirit which brings direction and peace to the faithful in difficult times.

Consider the two readings from the Sunday liturgy. The Acts of the Apostles presents a chaotic scene, described in terms of the fearful, awesome forces of nature. A driving, powerful wind fills the room where the disciples gathered. Tongues of fire part upon each of those present. Fire was an essential element of the natural order, used to create and destroy, needed for warmth and light. This is indeed an important moment in Salvation History, when all are filled with the fire of the Holy Spirit. The power of this Spirit enabled all to speak and proclaim the great deeds of God. It enabled the listeners to understand, without difficulty or confusion, that the overwhelming power of God accompanies all human history.

The Gospel retells the event of that first Sunday of Resurrection faith when the disciples, confused and huddled in fear, recognize the risen Christ in their midst. His first words, "Peace be with You," are spoken to impart reassurance and strength. When Jesus breathes on them (symbolic of the driving wind of the Spirit), Jesus empowers His disciples to preach and bestow forgiveness to a waiting world.

Today, for the Church, for our parish, and for ourselves personally, we pray for a new Pentecost. We need not recoil in fear or apprehension when we experience the difficulties of being a strong believer, a faithful Christian. We have been given power to preach peace and forgiveness in the face of hatred and vengeance. The Spirit accompanies us in these necessary tasks as our words and deeds proclaim the presence of the Spirit to people who have grown weary and to many who have never heard. Let us allow the Spirit into our lives, to energize, to direct and inspire, and to comfort us.

Come to the Picnic today!

Fr. Bill Arnold

WOW!!! We have made it, but we need to keep going. Please remember, anything that goes over goal comes directly back to Holy Spirit. Any monies we would receive would greatly help in the purchase of our much needed new heating systems for the church and the school. Whatever we get back over goal, we would not pay Diocesan tax on these funds, as we would in a fund raiser for the boilers. If you have already made a pledge, please consider an additional contribution that would be returned directly to us for the boilers untaxed. If you have not made a pledge, please consider this now. Remember, it is your church in which you like to be cool in the summer and warm in the winter. The children of the school need to be warm in the winter. These children are our future! Any amount helps, no matter how great or how small. After week five, we have met our goal, but we only have 21% participation. Please help us meet at least 50% participation!!
