From the Pastor's Desk…

Today is the feast of Pentecost, fifty days after the celebration of the Resurrection. Today's liturgy is a celebration of the Spirit of God, the energizing, inspiring, and comforting presence of God with us, the Church, until the end of time. The Church of today experiences the same anxiety and apprehension as did the first disciples after the departure of Jesus from this world. But we, like the early disciples, must recognize the overwhelming presence of the Spirit, that Spirit which provides the driving energy to spread the Gospel. It is the same spirit which brings direction and peace to the faithful in difficult times.

Consider the two readings from the Sunday liturgy. The Acts of the Apostles presents a chaotic scene, described in terms of the fearful, awesome forces of nature. A driving, powerful wind fills the room where the disciples gathered. Tongues of fire part upon each of those present. Fire was an essential element of the natural order, used to create and destroy, needed for warmth and light. This is indeed an important moment in Salvation History, when all are filled with the fire of the Holy Spirit. The power of this Spirit enabled all to speak and proclaim the great deeds of God. It enabled the listeners to understand, without difficulty or confusion, that the overwhelming power of God accompanies all human history.

The Gospel retells the event of that first Sunday of Resurrection faith when the disciples, confused and huddled in fear, recognize the risen Christ in their midst. His first words, "Peace be with You" are spoken to impart reassurance and strength. When Jesus breathes on them, (symbolic of the driving wind of the Spirit), Jesus empowers His disciples to preach and bestow forgiveness to a waiting world.

Today, for the Church, for our parish, and for ourselves personally, we pray for a new Pentecost. We need not recoil in fear or apprehension when we experience the difficulties of being a strong believer, a faithful Christian. We have been given power to preach peace and forgiveness in the face of hatred and vengeance. The Spirit accompanies us in these necessary tasks as our words and deeds proclaim the presence of the Spirit to people who have grown weary, and to many who have never heard. Let us allow the Spirit into our lives, to energize, to direct and inspire, and to comfort us.

Have a Good Week!
Fr. Bill Arnold

We are doing extremely well here at Holy Spirit on the 2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal Campaign! In this, the fourth week of our efforts, we have 101 gifts from the parish to the campaign and we are on our way to reaching our parish goal of $129,085.38. Thank you, Holy Spirit Parishioners!

The BAA supports so many ministries of the Diocese of Columbus. It supports the education of seminarians for the priesthood and permanent deacons, many organizations for the poor and hungry, the pro-life efforts of our Diocese, the training of catechists for all parishes, tuition assistance for elementary and secondary Catholic schools. Many parishes in rural areas depend on the BAA to stay open.

The more Holy Spirit goes over the goal, our refund will grow to make needed capital repairs. I ask you to consider prayerfully a one-time gift to this effort or to make a pledge, which you can pay over time in the coming year. It is important that all parishioners do their part. Together, we can reach our goal and keep Holy Spirit Parish strong for the future. Every gift, large or small, matters!

Remember what we are giving for – to go over goal, through your generosity, and to pile up a refund – which is given back to the parish. The last two years have seen us go $10,000.00 over goal. The dollars are being saved for future capital repairs here at St. Philip.

Every gift to the BAA is important. No matter the size or amount, your gift is a sign of your support for the church in our Diocese and our parish. Please pray for the success of our Campaign. Prayerfully consider what gift, large or small, you could make. Thank you!

How to Receive Holy Communion – June 18th is the feast of the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, or Corpus Christi. This would be an excellent opportunity to review the procedures on receiving Holy Communion at Mass. The following are excerpts taken from our Diocesan newspaper, The Catholic Times, in the "Question and Answer" column by Fr. Kenneth Doyle of the Catholic News Service.

The guidelines for the reception of Holy Communion are expressed most clearly in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal.

- The host may be received either on the tongue or the hand, and the choice belongs to the communicant.
- Should the host be received on the tongue, the communicant should slightly tilt the head back, open the mouth and extend the tongue out, allowing the priest to place the host on the tongue. (Never should the communicant attempt to take the host from the priest's finger with the lips in order to secure the host.)
- If Communion is taken on the hand, the following procedure is used. If the person is right handed, he or she should open the left hand fully and place it over the right hand creating, as the theologian Tertullian said, a "throne for the Lord."
- The priest places the host in the left palm and then, using the fingers of the right hand, the communicant puts the host into his or her mouth. (A communicant should never reach out to the priest and grab the host.)
- Each nation's Conference of Bishops has the right to decide the posture to be used in receiving Communion, as well as the particular gesture of reverence before receiving. The U.S. Bishops have determined that Communion is to be received while standing, following a simple bow of the head (such as one uses when pronouncing the name of Jesus.)
- The fact that a communicant is receiving the body of Christ is paramount and overrides any consideration of posture or gesture. But a certain uniformity creates an orderly and more reverent flow. It also highlights the fact that the reception of Communion is not just an individual act of faith and piety, but illustrates the unity and spirituality of Christ's followers.
- Remember always: When the priest (or Eucharistic minister) pronounces the words: "The Body of Christ", please respond with a firm, audible, "Amen!" This is a personal act of faith. Never respond with "Thank You, Father," or any other variation of this response.

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Over 40 percent of dioceses in the U.S. are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support funds programs such as religious education, seminary formation, and lay ministry training, to build vibrant faith communities. Please be generous. Envelopes in packets.

Playpen for Birthright. A playpen for donations to Birthright will be in the sanctuary of both St. Philip and Holy Spirit Churches through Father's Day. Donations of diapers, baby blankets, "onesies," baby wipes and shampoo are needed to assist moms who chose to give their child life, under difficult circumstances. Make a donation over the next two weeks in memory of your own mother or father, if they are no longer with us.

Vacation Bible School: Our 2017 VBS will take place from 6:00-8:00 p.m. on June 25-29 in the Holy Spirit Parish Hall. Children from Holy Spirit and St. Philip the Apostle Parishes entering K-Grade 5 are encouraged to attend. Each day will include Bible stories, crafts, games and other exciting activities. Registration forms are available in the parish welcome center. If you have any questions or are interested in volunteering, please contact Mark Butler at 614-861-1521, ext. 12.
