From the Pastor's Desk

When St. Matthew wrote his Gospel about the year 80 A.D., the early Church was suffering great rejection from the Jewish Community. When Christian disciples were being thrown out of their synagogues and even their own families, they realized they were on their own. The Romans at least tolerated Judaism and its practices. This protection was now removed from the early Christians, and literally, they were on their own and suffered persecution as a result.

It is therefore easy to interpret this “love song” for the vineyard as being directed at those Jewish authorities and followers, who rejected Jesus. When Jesus poses the question, “Do you never read the Scriptures?”, imagine the reaction of the Scribes, Pharisees, and priests who were well versed in the Jewish Scriptures. Certainly, their opposition to Jesus was reaching fever pitch. It is, for our time, missing the point of this scripture passage to focus on Jesus’ opponents.

In our day, this parable must be addressed to us. The duty of caring for the vineyard – God’s kingdom in the world today – has been entrusted to us. We are the chosen keepers of the vineyard. The care of God’s people – the rich and poor, the faithful and sinner, the rejected, the outsiders, the forgotten – all those have been placed in our arms. In addition, the blessings of this world – the fruit of the vineyard – are bestowed on us for proper care and distribution to all. The needs of so many have been entrusted to us.

The burdens of faith and grace belong to us so long as we live. With God’s inspiration and support, we will always be equal to the task. Should we prove unreliable or unwilling to live out the commission of our Catholic faith, this important and sacred task will be given to others. God has chosen us to be visible representatives of divine love in the world. We resolve to prove ourselves worthy stewards of work in God’s vineyard.

Have a good Week!

Fr. Bill Arnold

October is Respect Life Month. No single issue is more identified with Catholic belief in our nation today than is respect for all human life. We chose to live a faith which recognizes the dignity and worth of every human life – born and unborn.

The horizon of this belief must be broad, however, and our vision far-reaching. Respect for life begins, certainly, with sacred regard for the yet to be born life in the womb, from the moment of conception. Life is a sacred gift from God, entrusted to our love and care. This is a “bedrock” belief, but it does not end there.

We are a Church that must be spokesperson and defender of life whenever and wherever its value and beauty have been denied and neglected: That includes:

- Compassion for the weak, sick, and elderly as well as for the handicapped and mentally challenged;
- Responsibility for the poor and homeless, as well as the immigrants and unwanted in our midst;
- A rejection of war and violence in all its forms, which damages the lives and communities of so many today;
- Respect for the beauty of nature, the vineyard of the Lord, and protection for its resources for the benefit of all humanity;
- Special concern for the weakest among us, children especially. They simply can’t defend themselves.

Liturgical Ministers Needed - What can you give as a gift that will be well appreciated and cost you nothing? Your time, when you are at Mass. We ask that you could serve as a Eucharistic Minister, lector, or server. A lector proclaims the Word of God!, a Eucharistic Minister distributes the Body of Christ. A Server helps the priest prepare the Mass and assist during the celebration. Your parish needs you to step forward and share the gift of your time! A costless, yet priceless gift! Please contact Marti at the Parish Office or send an email to stphilip1571@att.net.

St. Vincent de Paul volunteers will be at the doors next Sunday after Mass to accept whatever donations you are able to make. The monies will help the volunteers of the food pantry purchase needed supplies for those in need. The food pantry also offers clothing donations. Help keep someone warm. Bring your donations to the church entrances.
