From the Pastor's Desk...

This weekend is the Feast of All Saints and Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day). We honor all those whose Christian life on earth is now ended and we celebrate their presence with God. There are the more famous saints, whom the Church has officially "canonized" as such. Yet, there are the Saints that you and I have known, who in every aspect of their lives displayed unmistakable virtue and solid, Christian actions. They may never be the "headliners," but they remain our fellow parishioners, our grandparents and friends.

Why, then, do we celebrate the feast of All Souls? In the Catholic tradition, we believe in a merciful and just God. We may not presume to know the mind of God and how he judges the motives and stirrings of the human heart. We believe our prayers on this feast day can be intercessory, assisting those who for reasons unknown to us have yet to witness the eternal presence of God. That is why, we of the Catholic Faith pray for our beloved dead, knowing that as part of the "Communion of Saints" we can help and assist all whom we have loved and known, even if they be deceased.

Purgatory, as it has been known, has not been abolished. We should never presume to know exactly how God prepares or judges all who have died, believing in him, for the eternal presence. Nor should we presume to know how long this "personal purgatory" lasts. Remembering and praying for our deceased loved ones, however, gives strong witness to our love which triumphs over death. Death is the end of many things, but never the end of the love and personal relationships we have over so many years shared with our faithful departed. In spite of what you hear, remember that.

Have a good week!

Fr. Bill Arnold

Election Day: Tuesday, November 4. Voting in a free society is a right and an obligation. All Catholics are reminded of the document written by the U.S. Bishops years ago entitled, "Forming Conscience for Faith Citizenship: A Call to Political Responsibility." In this document, we read that "in the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue and participation in political life is a moral obligation." Form positions based on sound moral principles and prudence (good, personal judgment) and remember to vote on Tuesday, November 4. Polls open at 6:30 a.m. and close at 7:30 p.m. Bring personal identification.

Our Shared Parish Events and Information

Media Attention? The media focus on the Ebola virus has concentrated on the 3 cases here in the United States: one man who unfortunately died, and the two nurses who treated him, both of whom have been declared Ebola free. At last count, there have been 10,000+ cases in Africa, resulting in 4,950 deaths. Here in the United States, we are equipped (hospitals, doctors, etc.) to help and cure victims. Not so in Africa, where the lack of medical and social infrastructure have hampered efforts to identify and help victims. Once again, it is the POOR and underdeveloped countries who are truly suffering on a massive scale. Yet, we Americans are permitting fear about the possibility of an outbreak to dominate the air waves. As Christians, we should pray for the people of Guinea, Liberia, and Sierra Leone. They are the ones truly suffering. Pray for the brave doctors, nurses, and public health workers needed to assist these people.

The Silver Stars and Happy Spirits will hold a combined Thanksgiving dinner on Sunday, November 9th at 1:30 p.m. at TAT Ristorante di Famiglia. Cost is $14.95. For reservations call Pat Berry at 834-5545 by Monday, November 3rd.

Great refreshments will be available for everyone in the Parish Hall (church basement) after the service. It is a beautiful service. Please come.

Invite them to join us! All of us have neighbors, friends, and members of our family who have questions about our Catholic faith. Perhaps some of them have attended Mass with you or even expressed a desire to become Catholic someday. Now is the perfect time to
