From the Pastor's Desk...

Today's Gospel needs to be explained and interpreted correctly. Too often, the words of Jesus have been understood as a call to conflict, and as a call to an aggressive, if not violent, Christian response to opposition against the Gospel. Nothing could be further from the "Gospel truth."

The ministry and preaching of Jesus was a message of forgiveness, reconciliation, and mercy. However, Jesus warned His disciples that the Gospel would meet enormous opposition and it has been so received throughout centuries with suffering and martyrdom. In our times, Christians in so many countries have endured bloodshed and death, even more so than in the early centuries of the Church at the hands of Roman emperors.

Jesus understood this. He predicted His own suffering and death at the hands of enemies, and the disciples flatly rejected that very notion. In today's first reading, the prophet Jeremiah predicts the triumph of Jerusalem's enemies over her. The prophet is dispatched to a muddy cistern, because he had "demoralized the troops" of Israel confronting her enemies. Jerusalem was of course conquered, pillaged, and burned to the ground by the Babylonians in 586 B.C.

In today's second reading, St. Paul urged the early Christians to "persevere in running the race that lies before us," even though "you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood." The authentic living of Christian faith runs against or counter to our culture. Catholics and all Christians make a grave error when they believe that persecution calls for aggressive counter measures. We are to endure patiently in faith, "keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith." Remember what Christians are to do: love God and love our neighbor.

Have a good week!

Fr. Bill Arnold

Opening Prayer:

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who have prepared for those who love You good things which no eye can see, fill our hearts, we pray, with the warmth of Your love, so that, loving You in all things and above all things, we may attain Your promises, which surpass every human desire. Through Our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

The Assumption Of Mary: Monday, August 15 is the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This dogma of faith, proclaimed by Pope Pious XII in 1954, professes our belief in the bodily resurrection and glorification of Mary, the Mother of God. It is not a Holy Day of obligation this year. There will be one Mass at 9:00 a.m. at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Monday, August 15, 2022. The belief about Mary was not “invented” or formulated in the modern Church. In early Church tradition, this feast was known as the “Dormition,” or falling asleep of Mary, indicating her death. But the early Church believed that the mortal body of Mary was preserved from corruption in the grave, because of her great privilege of becoming the Mother of God.
