From the Pastor's Desk...

Inclusion, not exclusion, is everyone's wish. The knowledge that a person belongs, is not overlooked or left out, is important to us all. Our communities and the larger world are big, overwhelming places. Inclusion guarantees a place, security, and notice. One is not being overlooked.

The meaning of today's Gospel, however, does not turn on the exclusion of the man knocking on the door, then being told by the master of the home that it's too late, the door is locked. It was several Sundays ago when the Gospel told us to ask, to seek, to keep on knocking, and that persistence is always rewarded. Jesus has not changed His mind. Rather, this Gospel is directed at us, believers, "wanna be" disciples, who need to understand clearly what salvation means and the price to be paid.

The Gospel text begins with a question from an onlooker in the crowd: "Lord, will only a few be saved?" Jesus responds that to obtain salvation, enter the narrow gate. His response describes the challenge and difficulty of entering the narrow gate. Furthermore, He teaches that the gate does not remain open long. Many are invited, He adds, but not all choose the narrow gate.

What does Jesus mean when He tells those knocking on the door that it remains locked and they are too late? Jesus is speaking directly to us, the "baptized" in the choir, so to speak. We may think that our place is assured; that because we come to Church, volunteer, and say our prayers, that surely we are among the saved and included. It is not about all that. Just being familiar with Jesus and faith does not matter. What matters is a life lived at all times for God and others, in word and deed. Truly, this is the difficult, narrow gate.

The Gospel addresses the resistance to the non-believers (Gentiles) being invited to become Christian. We do not determine whom God calls to the table in the kingdom. Our self-righteousness, which may show itself in our "familiarity" with Jesus, may stand in the way. Certainly, we have dined at the altar table, we have observed Christmas, and we have friends in the parish. Admission to the kingdom is, however, through the narrow gate. Our admission ticket is a sincere, contrite heart, a life lived fully for God and others. God alone is the judge and gatekeeper.

Have a Good Week!
Fr. Bill Arnold

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant Your people to love what You command and to desire what You promise,
that, amid the uncertainties of this world,
our hearts may be fixed on that place
where true gladness is found.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Festival and Homecoming 2022

It's hard to believe that our Parish Festival and Homecoming has come and gone! We were sure blessed with beautiful weather! All in all, it was a great Festival – Holy Spirit Parishioners have a right to feel proud!

I want to thank all of the Festival committee members for their hard work before and during the big event. They have been meeting since last March to tackle details large and small. Their hard work was much in evidence and I know they sacrificed family and personal time for the sake of Holy Spirit Parish.

Thanks also are extended to the large army of volunteers who worked all three nights – and during setup, teardown and cleanup. Everyone who steps forward to lend a hand says that Holy Spirit Parish and School mean a lot to them. The Parish is grateful for their support. Obviously, the Festival simply would not happen were it not for them.

After all receipts are tallied and bills get paid, the final figures for Festival 2022 will be published here in the bulletin. It takes about a month, so watch this space! In the meantime, prayers of gratitude for the wonderful weather and community response are offered to God. We have indeed been blessed. Thanks to all of you for your help and support!

With gratitude,
Fr. Bill Arnold

Congratulations to the Big Winners! Thank you to all who supported the Festival Raffle and those who sold tickets. The Raffle winners were: Rose Hahn – $1000.00, De Ann Bukowski – $500.00, Maureen Erney – $100.00, Solomun Riskie – $100.00, Carla Scholl – $100.00, Sarah Smith – $100.00, and Sharon Woods – $100.00!

Prayer for Peace in Our Time

Peace Be With Us

How long, O Lord?

Your servants asked. Your servants sought an end.

They sought a time of renewal.

How long, O Lord?

How long shall we endure division, rancor, injustice?

When is the end of it?

How long, O Lord?

Shall we remain impenitent, impatient, and unruly servants?

When will we bend the knee and seek Your face and learn to live in peace? Amen
