From the Pastor's Desk...

Today's Gospel may seem a bit difficult to understand. It seems to be praising the over-persistent, almost badgering behavior of this widow, asking the judge for justice. Her persistence is praiseworthy. We always admire individuals who stick to it, who press their cause, especially when they do so in a decent, admirable way.

Today's Gospel, however, is not about the widow exclusively. Yes, her entreaty and her personal quest for justice teach us the power of prayer and that prayers are heard. This parable told by Jesus is intended, however, to contrast the behavior of the judge who "feared neither God nor respected any human being" and God, who listens to those no one else can hear.

The somewhat mean-spirited judge gives into the widow and finally grants her request because he is simply tired of being annoyed. He actually fears that she may come and assault him physically! This is hardly the basis for settling any legal dispute, and certainly not the basis for a system of justice. In telling this story, Jesus tells His listeners to "pay attention to what the dishonest judge says."

Contrast this judge to the God who is Jesus Christ. The Gospel invites us to understand God as the one who desires us, the one who seeks us out, the one who wants to fulfill our deepest needs. The God of Jesus invites us to lay down our burdens and concerns. He welcomes our prayers and conversations, because they bring us closer to the God who desires a relationship with us.

God wants us to place trust and confidence in Him. Consider all the people in the world who turn to God, because, quite simply, they have no one else to turn to or no one who considers their needs urgent. It is the folks who have no one else to turn to – the publicly shamed, the poor, the destitute, the broken of this world – who display enormous faith and trust in God. These are the people we need to stand close to. We can learn a lot about faith and determination from those who have little else to rely on.

Have a Good Week!

Fr. Bill Arnold

Hurricane Relief Collection: We are witnessing the devastation caused by hurricanes in Catholic Dioceses in Florida and Puerto Rico. Recovery will be lengthy, and many agencies, including Catholic Charities USA, are working to provide comfort and relief to the millions of people affected by the disaster.

A special collection will take place at Holy Spirit and St. Philip Parishes NEXT weekend, October 22 and 23. Please be as generous as you can be. I know that everyone is watching their money now, but consider how fortunate we are and the misfortune of others.

Thank you,
Fr. Arnold

Are you or is someone you know: Curious about the Catholic faith? Interested in becoming Catholic? Baptized Catholic as a child, but never received the Sacraments of Confirmation and the Eucharist?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which adults join the Catholic Church. The first step in this process is a period of inquiry, which is an opportunity to learn more about our parish community, our Catholic faith, and our God. Our first RCIA session was on October 4th at the Holy Spirit Parish Office. You are welcome to participate with your questions in a warm setting with no commitment required.

If you or someone you know is interested in more information, please call 614-861-1521 or email reled@holyspiritcolumbus.org.

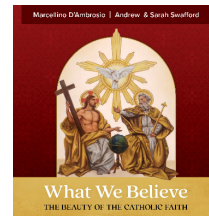

You're Invited! St. Philip and Holy Spirit parishioners age 55 and older are invited to come together for a Thanksgiving meal. Father Arnold is hosting an afternoon of companionship, fun, prizes and traditional turkey dinner at TAT on Sunday, November 13th at 3:00 p.m. Seating is limited, so reservations are required. Please call St. Philip Parish Office at 614-237-1671 to save your place. We look forward to seeing you there.

Respect for Life is not selective. In other words, when life as a gift from God is held sacred and inviolable, it is respected and honored in all its many forms and across all issues.

The late Cardinal Joseph Bernardine, a great churchman, called respect for life a "seamless garment." Like the robe of Christ divided up as He hung on the cross, there is no seam – one thread leads to another and respect for life connects one issue to the next.

Human life is sacred, whether unborn in the mother's womb, locked up in prison, closed up in a care facility, living on the streets, or suffering from poverty and malnutrition. Respect for life means the lives of all people – black or white, friend or enemy, young or old, citizen or immigrant, deserve equal respect and protection.

MINISTERS

Calling all Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers! It's that time of year when we invite anyone interested in lectoring and/or being a Eucharistic Minister at Mass. You are not limited to only one ministry, but you cannot do more than one of those ministries at the same Mass.

There will be a short training session for lectors scheduled, as well as Eucharistic Minister training. For those interested, please call the parish office at St. Philip at 614-237-1671 or Holy Spirit at 614-861-1521, and leave your name and number.
