From the Pastor's Desk...

We should not sit in judgement of biblical peoples in their reaction to skin diseases, such as leprosy. In modern times, we too have ostracized fellow citizens for a variety of reasons: the internment camps for Japanese Americans in World War II, AIDS patients in the early 1980's, the proposal to ban Muslims from entering the United States. Such containment, isolation or rejection of any group in any society is done primarily out of fear, an irrational response to an "exaggerated" problem. We know how powerful unfounded fear can be.

Today's readings, however, are about more than fear or even the miraculous healing of Namaan in the first reading, or the ten lepers in the Gospel. Focus attention, if you will, on the response of the one cured leper, a Samaritan, and the other nine, who seemingly walked away, just happy to be cured. The "Samaritan leper" professes not only his belief in Jesus, but returns in gratitude to express appreciation for all Jesus did for him. He knows who cured him and he comes back "to give a return to God" for all he has experienced.

All of us know that saying "thanks" is the right thing to do. Like the ten (former) lepers, usually only a small percentage of people express their gratitude. Parents are supposed to teach their children to write "thank you" notes. For a couple of generations, this has not happened. Is it fair to assume that expressions of gratitude to God have also declined?

The cured Samaritan leper was moved not only by his gratitude for what he had received. He also came to know in his gratitude who Jesus really was and, in turn, who God was. Gratitude can lead us to God. For that reason, it is an important virtue of a faithful person. Our gratitude does not make God feel good – it ennobles us with a greater sense of appreciation for all we have received. Parents – please teach gratitude to your children...for what you, others, and God gives them in their lives.

Have a Good Week!

Fr. Bill Arnold

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

*May Your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works,
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.*

Shared Parish Information

Are you or is someone you know: Curious about the Catholic faith? Interested in becoming Catholic? Baptized Catholic as a child, but never received the Sacraments of Confirmation and the Eucharist? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which adults join the Catholic Church. The first step in this process is a period of inquiry, which is an opportunity to learn more about our parish community, our Catholic faith, and our God. Our first RCIA session began last Tuesday, October 4th at the Holy Spirit Parish Office. You are welcome to participate with your questions in a warm setting with no commitment required. If you or someone you know is interested in more information, please call 614-861-1521 or e-mail reled@holyspiritcolumbus.org.

October is Respect Life Month. No single issue is more identified with Catholic belief in our nation today than is respect for all human life. We choose to live a faith which recognizes the dignity and worth of every human life – born and unborn.

The horizon of this belief must be broad, however, and our vision far-reaching. Respect for life begins, certainly, with sacred regard for the yet to be born life in the womb, from the moment of conception. Life is a sacred gift from God, entrusted to our love and care. This is a “bedrock” belief, but it does not end there.

We are a Church that must be spokesperson and defender of life whenever and wherever its value and beauty have been denied and neglected: That includes:

- Compassion of the weak, sick, and elderly as well as for the handicapped and mentally challenged;
- Responsibility for the poor and homeless, as well as the immigrants and unwanted in our midst;
- A rejection of war and violence in all its forms, which damages the lives and communities of so many today;
- Respect for the beauty of nature, the vineyard of the Lord, and protection for its resources for the benefit of all humanity;
- Special concern for the weakest among us, children especially. They simply can’t defend themselves.

Parish Notes

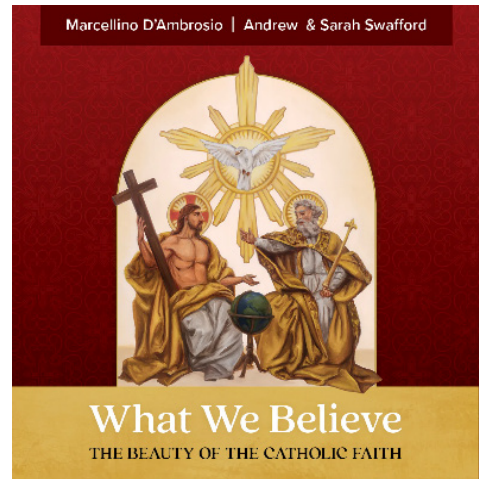

Hurricane Relief Collection: We are witnessing the devastation caused by hurricanes in American Catholic Dioceses in Florida and Puerto Rico. Recovery is expected to be lengthy, and many government and social aid agencies, including Catholic Charities USA, are already working to provide comfort and relief to the millions of people affected by the disaster. A special collection will take place at Holy Spirit and St. Philip the Apostle Parishes on the weekend of October 22 and 23. Please be as generous as you can be. I know that everyone is watching their money now, but consider how fortunate we are and the misfortune of others.

Thank you,
Fr. Arnold

There will be a short training session for lectors scheduled, as well as Eucharistic Minister training. For those interested, please call the parish office at St. Philip (614-237-1671) or Holy Spirit (614-861-1521), and leave your name and number.
