From the Pastor's Desk...

During the past liturgical year, we have heard the Gospel of Luke proclaimed at the Sunday liturgies. On most Sundays, I pointed out that in the Gospel of Luke, Jesus is making His way to Jerusalem, the city where He will fulfill His ministry and mission – death on the cross and resurrection to new life. Along the way, He instructs His disciples and willing listeners in the duties, burdens and challenges of discipleship.

On the last Sunday of the Church year, the Feast of Christ the King, all that now comes to an end. Jesus is hanging on the cross. All levels of authority and power – the civil rulers, the Roman soldiers, religious authorities, even one of the criminals – mock and jeer at Jesus, belittling Him while they call Him “the Christ (anointed one) of God,” “the King of the Jews,” and once again “the Christ.” Jesus’ mission and call to discipleship includes rejection and humiliation. These bystanders ironically hurl epithets at Jesus which give witness to His true identity.

Finally, from Jesus on the cross, comes the utterance of true power and authority. The good thief, Dismas by tradition, pleads to Jesus in the moment of his death and suffering. This thief asks for forgiveness and to be with Jesus when He comes into His Kingdom. It is the prayer of a dying man and the prayer all of us hope to give voice to in the moment of our own death. In this moment of humility and contrition, he receives from Jesus a promise of forgiveness and acceptance.

With the words of Jesus, “this day you will be with me in paradise,” the journey of Jesus to Jerusalem is complete. His mission is fulfilled. The power of the King on the cross has been revealed in the power of mercy and forgiveness. Pope Francis has asked Christians everywhere to learn what it means to forgive someone, even when we think they don’t deserve it. Please use mercy and forgiveness generously in your life.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving,
Fr. Bill Arnold

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

*Almighty ever-living God, whose will is to restore all things in Your beloved Son,
the King of the Universe, grant, we pray,
that the whole creation, set free from slavery,
may render Your majesty service and ceaselessly proclaim Your praise.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.*

From Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP): During the past 6 months, our SVDP members have received unprecedented calls for rental assistance, utilities, and visits to our food pantry. With your generous support, we have been able to provide assistance in these challenging times. With the Christmas season approaching, we want to provide our neighbors with some extra assistance (in the form of gift cards and some other household necessities) to bring them a bit of cheer and good will. We have been blessed to receive a generous donation to aid in this endeavor, and we are inviting you, our parishioners, to contribute as well. You will find envelopes in the pews for you to contribute if you wish. Your generosity and support of our efforts is never taken for granted. Additional Holy Spirit Information

Whitehall Community Kids Christmas: Again this year, we are participating in the Whitehall Community Kids Christmas! The Giving Tree is adorned with many gift tags for 10 kids in our community. The gifts that we are fulfilling are mostly needs, such as clothing and outerwear, but we are also given a list of toys they would like to open on Christmas morning, too! Please consider taking a tag or two the next few weeks to help support this wonderful holiday giving experience. All gifts need to be returned by Sunday, November 27, 2022.

Holy Spirit School wishes all of you a very Happy Thanksgiving! We will kick off our annual food drive for the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry next week by collecting items that the pantry is in most need of at this time of the year. The drive will continue through the week after Thanksgiving. Students will be in the building on Monday and Tuesday of this week before they begin their short Thanksgiving Break.

– Kathy Costello, Principal

Attention, Lectors: The lector workbooks are in the sacristy. Please don't forget to pick up your book before Advent begins on November 27th.

Memorial Book of the Dead: In the front of the church, there is a table upon which rests the Book of the Deceased. During the month of November, when we especially remember and pray for our faithful departed, all parishioners are invited to inscribe the names of deceased Holy Spirit Parishioners or names of family members and friends who have died.

Please remember in your prayers all the sick, homebound, or recovering in our parish, especially Ned Braun, Bernie Comer, Lu & Bob Cudak, Carl Jura, Steve & Nancy Sagle, Maria Stevenson, and Geri Torr.

Regarding "Late Delivery" Church Envelopes: Some parishioners have contacted the office concerning non-delivery of church envelopes. Even my envelopes (meaning Fr. Arnold's) came late this month. Be assured, the company mailed all packets. It is a problem of delivery by the U.S. Postal Service. In the meantime, use a simple plain envelope with your name on it and you will be given credit.

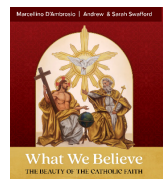

Happy Thanksgiving! To all of you, a very happy and blessed Thanksgiving Day. We give thanks to God for our many gifts. Please keep in your prayers the people who work hard to produce and prepare the food we eat. Be safe if you are traveling to any destination. Three Masses will be celebrated for Thanksgiving:

- Tuesday, November 22nd, at 1:15 p.m. at Holy Spirit (School Mass)
- Wednesday, November 23rd, at 9:00 a.m. at St. Philip
- Thursday, November 24th, at 9:00 a.m. at Holy Spirit

All of us have much to be grateful for. Everything we have comes from God. Please come to Mass as living witness to your personal gratitude for all you have received from God. There will be NO MASS at St. Philip on Tuesday, November 22nd, and no Mass at Holy Spirit on Friday, November 25th.

Both Holy Spirit and St. Philip Parish Offices will be closed on Thursday and Friday, November 24th and 25th, for the Thanksgiving holiday.
