From the Pastor's Desk...

What exactly are the Beatitudes? How can they be described or understood? They are certainly part of the teaching of Jesus. In today's Gospel, taken from the part of Matthew's Gospel better known as the "Sermon on the Mount," the evangelist perfectly frames the setting. He describes Jesus up on the mount (compare to Moses' receiving the Law on Mt. Sinai); sitting down to teach (as did the teachers of the Law giving instruction); and finally, Jesus giving the meaning of the New Law (as compared to the Old Law of Sinai).

The Beatitudes are promises of hope to those who embrace discipleship. They represent promises that God has made to humanity. Some of these promises are fulfilled every day as we live: mourners are comforted and, the poor in spirit (those who rely only on God) live among us, demonstrating trust and confidence in God in all they do. These were signs to Matthew that the kingdom of God, announced by Jesus, was already alive and living among those embracing the Good News of the Gospel.

The Beatitudes are also promises of things yet to come. The listeners of Jesus' day were craving encouragement and hope, as are so many people in the world today. Life has always been difficult, and those embracing the Gospel were experiencing rejection and exclusion from their own communities. They are instructed to lift up their vision and hearts, so as to understand that God is in charge of all time and history. God's coming kingdom, mentioned in every utterance of the "Our Father," is a kingdom in which God fulfills the longings of the poor, the weak, the mourning and those hungering for justice and peace.

The Beatitudes also describe Christian virtues, which those who long for God's kingdom are encouraged to embrace. The Christian believer is encouraged to become meek, embracing humility, to work untiringly for peace, to thirst for justice. Virtue is a quality of the heart that shapes character and the actions of our lives. We believe the Saints are with God precisely because they made the Beatitudes the reason for their hope and relied on God alone. Every time we hear the Beatitudes, we are invited to become citizens of the Kingdom, working together in the Church, to make God's kingdom alive in our day!

Have a Good Week!
Fr. Bill Arnold

Fourth Week in Ordinary Time

*Grant us, Lord our God, that we may honor You with all our mind,
and love everyone in truth of heart.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.*

St. Blaise Blessing: Next Friday, February 3rd, the traditional “Blessing of the Throats” will be offered in honor of St. Blaise, the patron protector against all illnesses of the throat. The blessing will be offered after the 8:15 a.m. school liturgy at Holy Spirit.

To my fellow brothers and sisters of Holy Spirit and St. Phillip parishes; my name is Michael Berger, and I am a candidate to become a permanent deacon for the diocese of Columbus. I have been privileged to be assigned to Holy Spirit to complete a two-year internship as I journey toward ordination. As part of my internship, I will be learning how to conduct myself as a deacon on the altar and through the many ministries present at Holy Spirit. Over the next several months, I will transition from observing parish life at Holy Spirit, to a greater participation in the sacramental life of the parish, especially the celebration of the Mass. I also hope to explore and possibly assist with many other happenings within the parish. I know with your help and with the assistance of Fr. Arnold and Deacon George, I will grow into the vocation to which God is calling me.

A little about myself – I was born and raised on the east side of Columbus, and attended Holy Spirit grade school for 8 years! I received all 3 sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) here, so Holy Spirit definitely has special place in my heart. My mom, Carol Berger, is an active parishioner at Holy Spirit, as she and my dad joined the parish back in 1964. I graduated from Bishop Hartley HS and then The Ohio State University and have been a pharmacist for 29 years. The last 21 years I have worked with breast cancer patients as an oncology pharmacist at The James Cancer Hospital. My wife Megan and I have been married 28 years and have been parishioners at St. Pius X parish in Reynoldsburg during that time. We have 3 children; Andrew (23), Caroline (20) and Olivia (8). In my spare time I enjoy golf, fishing, and flower gardening.

I look forward to meeting you and getting to know you over the next few years. Know that all of you will be in my prayers in the years ahead and I would ask all of you to pray for me and my family as well.

Additional Holy Spirit Information

– Miss Kathy Costello, Principal

Catholic Schools Week, January 29-February 3, 2023: This week we recognize and honor the value of Catholic Schools across the United States. Here at Holy Spirit, our school is our most prominent and essential ministry. Every day, our teachers instruct around 275 students, Pre-K through 8th grade.

Our Holy Spirit School has three important mission goals: 1) to promote and live Catholic and Gospel values in the school setting; 2) to offer a strong academic program and promote love of learning; 3) to instill good discipline and responsibility in the young people entrusted to our care. These three goals are the benchmarks of a good, solid Catholic education.

Many of us here at Holy Spirit are the product of Catholic schools and education earlier in our lives. Holy Spirit School is an important asset on the east side of Columbus and in the Whitehall community. Our neighborhood would be radically different without the presence of this valuable religious and educational asset.

As pastor, I ask that each one of you would keep our parish school – its teaching faculty, its parents and families, as well as its students, in your prayers. We are a humble, yet proud community which exists to keep alive in the hearts of all who attend here, the values of Catholic faith and Christian family life.

– Fr. Bill Arnold
