From the Pastor's Desk...

The message spoken by the angel to the shepherds in the fields on the first Christmas night is announced to us this Christmas, 2022. "Do not be afraid," the angel said to the fearful and overwhelmed men watching their flocks at night. When we, the men and women, families and children look at all the events in the world and in our personal lives, we need an act of faith in these words. We must not be afraid.

The world has always been a difficult place to live in, but it is our world. We sometimes are led to believe that the world is more brutal and cruel today than at any time in human history, but I think not. We need to remind ourselves of the Good News we celebrate for the next two weeks, that GOD IS WITH US. We celebrate the great dignity and worth God has bestowed on every human person. God does not call us to react in fear. God calls us to live and act in the freedom of the sons and daughters of God.

We must never permit fear and anxiety to lead us to recoil from that dignity we have or the work God has entrusted to us. The world may be a mess, or our personal lives may be tangled up and flawed, but today we are called to live in faith that God never abandons us. God is with us, and calls us to be His good servants.

Live out in your lives the Good News and the hope we celebrate this Christmas. Never give in to the tendency or the easy path of fear and reaction. From all of us who serve you here at Holy Spirit and St. Philip the Apostle Parishes, our best wishes for a Merry Christmas and every good blessing from God in the coming New Year. Be kind to your families, hold them tight now and throughout the year.

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Bill Arnold

Christmas Season Gratitude is extended  to the Whitehall community for their Christmas Blessings support of our efforts to assist the needy here at Holy Spirit; in particular, these donors:

The Woodturners meet in the Parish Hall once a month to learn more about their hobby and craft (making things out of wood)! Every year, they take up a collection for our food pantry. We are grateful to them for their generosity to our neighbors here in Whitehall. Thanks especially to our parishioner, Mike Trucco, who heads up that effort!

Creative Palette, a business here in Whitehall at 310 N. Yearling Road, also delivered items for our food pantry this past week. We appreciate that collection taken up by their employees on behalf of the visitors to our food pantry.

Holy Family Prayer Day: Friday, December 30, 2022

The Feast of the Holy Family is celebrated this year on Friday, December 30th.

After Mass on that Friday, there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and the Rosary will be prayed together during that time. Special intentions for that day: for all families; for peace in Ukraine (and the world); for refugees around the world. Please come and join in prayer!

Feast of the Holy Family: Friday, December 30, 2022 – There will be one Mass that day at 9:00 a.m. at Holy Spirit. Many Catholics, unfortunately, take a pass on attending Mass on this day. But as we come to the end the year, I want you to know what prayer intentions are connected to this feast:

- We pray for all families who work hard, raise their children, pay their bills, and every day struggle with the duties and troubles of daily life.
- We remember all families who are grieving this holiday season over the loss of a loved one and people close to them.
- We pray for families divided because of war or civil violence; families separated by immigration or deportation; families apart because of imprisonment; families separated by divorce, or families torn apart by domestic violence at home.
- We remember families separated because a loved one is serving in harm's way in the armed forces.
- We pray for all families whose parents are in nursing or care centers, especially elderly folks who are separated from their children who live great distances away.

Father, help us to love as the Holy Family, united in respect and love. Teach us the sanctity of human love, show us the value of family life, and help us to live in peace with all people that we may share in Your life forever. We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen

The Nativity of the Lord

*O God, who wonderfully created the dignity of human nature and still more wonderfully restored it,
grant, we pray,
that we may share in the divinity of Christ,
who humbled Himself to share in our humanity.
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.*

January 1, 2023, The Solemnity of Mary the Holy Mother of God:

This day has also been designated as a Day of Prayer for World Peace. The Masses will honor Mary, the Mother of God, and on the first day of the New Year, 2023, we will together pray for peace throughout the world, especially for protection from armed nuclear conflict and the threat of terror anywhere in the world. Masses will be celebrated as follows:

- ~ Saturday, December 31, at St. Philip – 4:00 p.m.
- ~ Saturday, December 31, at Holy Spirit – 5:30 p.m.
- ~ Sunday, January 1, at St. Philip – 9:00 a.m.
- ~ Sunday, January 1, at Holy Spirit – 11:00 a.m.

Christmas Card Thank You: I received numerous Christmas cards from parishioners of both St. Philip and Holy Spirit Parishes. They are not thrown in a pile. I take a moment and sit down several times during the Christmas season and reflect on the good wishes expressed therein. I want to thank everyone who sent me a card and assure them of my prayers and gratitude.

Give Something That Means Something!
The American Red Cross Blood Drive: Whitehall United Methodist Church is hosting a Blood Drive on Tuesday, December 27th, from 12:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. WUMC is located at 525 Bernhard Road in Whitehall. To schedule an appointment, call 1-800-RED-CROSS, or visit www.redcrossblood.org, sponsor code: WhitehallUMC.

Shared Parish Information

56th Day of Prayer for World Peace: Every Holy Father since Pope Paul VI in 1967 (that includes John Paul II, Pope Benedict, and Pope Francis) has called upon Catholics and peoples of the world to pray for peace.

The Holy Father commands neither military force nor an arsenal of weapons to “fight” for peace. Rather, Pope Francis uses the words of Jesus in Luke’s Gospel.

In sending His disciples forth on mission, Jesus told them:

“Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house!’ And if a son of peace is there, your peace shall rest upon him; but if not, it shall return to you.”

Pope Francis has emphasized the role of good politics – more specifically – good politicians, as key to bringing peace to the world and society. Politicians should see themselves as the servants of all. These qualities the politicians of every (or any) nation ought to possess. They are called the “Beatitudes of the Politician.”

- Blessed be the politician with a lofty sense and deep understanding of his role.
- Blessed be the politician who personally exemplifies credibility.
- Blessed be the politician who works for the common good and not his or her own interest.
- Blessed be the politician who remains consistent.
- Blessed be the politician who works for unity.
- Blessed be the politician who works to accomplish radical change.
- Blessed be the politician who is capable of listening.
- Blessed be the politician who is without fear.

One thing is certain: Good politics is at the service of peace. It respects and promotes fundamental human rights, which are at the same time mutual obligations, enabling a bond of trust and gratitude to be forged between present and future generations.

Pope Francis’ Prayer for Peace and Protection from Violence and from Terrorism:

Almighty and merciful God, Lord of the universe and of history, all that You have created is good and Your compassion for the mistakes of mankind knows no limits.

We come to You today to ask You to keep in peace the world and its people, to keep far away from it the devastating wave of terrorism, to restore friendship and instill in the hearts of Your creatures the gift of trust and of readiness to forgive.

O Giver of Life, we pray to You also for all those who have died as victims of brutal terrorist attacks. Grant them their eternal reward. May they intercede for the world that is torn apart by conflicts and disagreements.

O Jesus, Prince of Peace, we pray to You for the ones who have been wounded in these acts of inhuman violence: children and young people, old people and innocent people accidentally involved in evil. Heal their bodies and hearts; console them with Your strength and, at the same time, take away any hatred and a desire for revenge.

Holy Spirit Consoler, visit the families of the victims of terrorism, families that suffer through no fault of their own. Wrap them in the mantle of Your divine mercy. Make them find again in You and in themselves the strength and courage to continue to be brothers and sisters for others, above all for immigrants, giving witness to Your love by their lives.

Touch the hearts of terrorists so that they may recognize the evil of their actions and may turn to the way of peace and goodness, of respect for the life and for the dignity of every human being, regardless of religion, origin, wealth or poverty.

O God, Eternal Father, in Your mercy hear our prayer which we raise up to You amidst the deafening noise and desperation of the world. We turn to You with great hope, full of trust in Your infinite Mercy, made strong by the examples of the blessed martyrs of Perú, Zbigniew and Michael, who have rendered courageous testimony to the Gospel, to the point of offering their blood, we entrust ourselves to the intercession of Your Most Holy Mother. We ask for the gift of peace and of the elimination from our midst of the sore of terrorism.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
