From the Pastor's Desk...

The Gospel of the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time is taken again from the “so-called” Sermon on the Mount. Jesus is teaching the disciples as once Moses taught the Jewish people when he descended Mt. Sinai and explained the Law (what became the Jewish Torah) to the former slaves from Egypt.

When we all were children, most of us had very clear cut, black and white rules from our parents. Rules and laws are easier for children to understand when they are simple, direct, and allow for no exceptions. To be sure, kids always try to bend the rules, find a way around them, or interpret them to their advantage. This is the world of kids. All of us remember those times, and have – hopefully – outgrown them.

One's attitude toward “law” depends not only on the reasons one sees for it, but also how one feels toward the law-giver. For example, most kids obey rules for one reason: to avoid punishment. All of us at times feared our parents and, obeying rules was seen as self-preservation: we were trying to stay out of trouble. It was the same way in school. We obeyed a teacher's rules to avoid staying after school or our parents finding out. Back then, we got double the punishment, once our parents found out.

Then, along the way, something unusual happened. We would follow our parents' rules because we discovered we liked them, (our parents - imagine that!) and sought their approval. A relationship of respect and love began to grow. If we decided we liked a teacher or liked the class or subject matter, we would do anything to get and stay on a teacher's good side. Obeying mom's and dad's rules – even those of the teacher – gave us a feeling of acceptance and security, and eventually their respect for us began to matter to us.

Granted, some parents then and today fail to demonstrate acceptance, love and approval. It also happened (from my days in education), that when students decided they did not like a teacher for whatever reason, they intentionally taunted that teacher and the rules were simply tossed out the window. Too often, as a principal/vice-principal, I had to sit in the back of the classroom playing the enforcer, so learning could take place – and to save the teacher.

Listen carefully to the Gospel today. Jesus is trying to move His disciples to a higher place. They should obey laws out of respect and love for God and neighbor, because they understand the laws better as mature, thinking people. Obeying laws and commandments because we fear God is the direct opposite of loving God – and neighbor. If we truly love other people, we do them no harm. Respecting rules and laws of any kind because we love God, we love people, and we wish them well – these are far better, higher motivations for ourselves and others to follow.

Have a Good Week!

Fr. Bill Arnold

Please remember in your prayers Beverly Gellings, age 72, who died on January 24, 2023, in Huntsburg, Ohio. She was a longtime resident of Columbus before moving to Chardon six years ago. She retired from Holy Spirit School after 25 years as a first-grade teacher. Remember Bev, her husband, Herman, and her children in your prayers. The Mass of Christian Burial was held on Friday, February 3rd, at the Church of St. Mary, in Chardon, Ohio, with burial following at All Souls Cemetery in Chardon Twp. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Holy Spirit School students in Grades 5-8 participated in our school spelling bee this week. Our winner and runner-up will be announced next week! Middle school students will be participating in the Power of the Pen writing competition on Saturday, February 11th and the BETA Convention competitions on Tuesday, February 14th. They will be competing with students from other schools around the area. We wish all of our students good luck in their competitions! Next week, our second round of parent-teacher conferences will take place. Thank you for your continuous support and prayers. We appreciate you!

Shared Parish Information

Sixth Week in Ordinary Time

O God, Who teach us that You abide in hearts that are just and true, grant that we may be so fashioned by Your grace as to become a dwelling pleasing to You. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

ASH WEDNESDAY

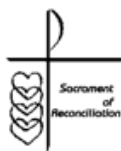

Ash Wednesday is February 22, 2023. The beginning of Lent is fast approaching. In fact, it is a week from this coming Wednesday. The schedule for Masses and distribution of ashes for that day is as follows:

St. Philip the Apostle	9:00 a.m.
Holy Spirit (with school students)	1:15 p.m.
Holy Spirit	7:00 p.m.

Ash Wednesday is a day of abstinence from meat and fasting for those between the ages of 18-59. The offertory collection on that day is a voluntary offering to support the J.O.I.N. Office, the outreach center of the Church for the needy, in downtown Columbus.

Ash Wednesday Collection: Proceeds of the Ash Wednesday collection will be contributed to the Joint Organization for Inner-city Needs (JOIN). JOIN operates under Catholic Charities of the Columbus Diocese. JOIN provides emergency assistance to the poor and vulnerable throughout the Diocese. This assistance may be in the form of food, personal care or household items and diapers. They also assist with prescriptions, utilities, birth certificates and transportation.

Penance Service, Sunday, March 5, 2023: The parish penance service for Lent and the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be on Sunday, March 5, 2023, at 4:00 p.m., at Holy Spirit Parish. The second graders of Holy Spirit School and PSR will make their First Penance that day. Join them in receiving this sacrament before Lent.

Holy Spirit and St. Philip Parishes will once again participate in the Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl Collection during this Season of Lent. CRS is a reliable, and cost effective means to support the efforts of the Catholic Church overseas where wars, natural disasters and famine are present. Please plan to participate by saving your coins/dollar bills for the Rice Bowl collection.

Additional Holy Spirit Information

Please Note: Year-end contribution statements are available by request. Please contact the parish office between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, to request a statement. 614-861-1521.

Baptism Class: The next Baptism class is scheduled for Sunday, February 19, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. (after Mass) in the Parish office. You must preregister for the class; call 614-861-1521.

Pray for a Just Society: The recent killing of Tyre Nichols, a 29-year-old man in Memphis, Tennessee, has reminded us – once again – of the danger young black men in our country still face, at the hands of some police departments and officers – not all. The five officers charged in his death were all Black African Americans as well.

The death of this young man is a tragedy, and serves only to remind us that all Americans should work and pray for equal justice under the law – an American ideal. Please pray for his community in Memphis, for police departments, as well as for our nation. Pray for the mothers who have to bury their children after a seemingly senseless act of violence. We are all in this together – let's not forget that.

Lenten Study Series: Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues

For our 2023 Lenten Study, we will be watching Bishop Robert Barron's presentations on the seven deadly sins, those great spiritual blocks that inhibit our flourishing in relationship with God and one another. Based on Dante's writings, the seven deadly sins correspond to the seven stories of Dante's Mt. Purgatory. Pride, envy, anger, sloth, gluttony, avarice and lust are all presented as patterns of dysfunction within us that lead to unhappiness. Bishop Barron shows us how to counteract these seven sinful patterns through a conscious process of opposition, known as the "seven lively virtues." These offer antidotes to each sin and help set us on the right path to healing and happiness. We will be watching two short presentations each Sunday in Lent followed by a group discussion. We will be meeting from 6:00-7:30 p.m. in the parish conference room on the following dates. A light supper will be provided. Please call 614-861-1521 to sign up.

Sunday, February 26: Introduction and Pride & Humility

Sunday, March 5: No Class – Holy Spirit Parish Penance Service at 4:00 p.m.

Sunday, March 12: Envy & Admiration and Anger & Forgiveness

Sunday March 19: Sloth & Zeal and Avarice & Generosity

Sunday, March 26: Gluttony & Asceticism and Lust & Chastity

Catholic Times Collections: February is the month when subscription renewals traditionally begin for the print edition of the Catholic Times. In the past, payment for new subscriptions and renewals were collected through the parish, but an online system is now in place to make the process easier. Simply visit the Catholic Times website, www.catholictimescolumbus.org, and access the “subscribe” tab at the top of the home page to sign up for a new subscription, a renewal or a gift. Current subscribers also will receive a paper statement in the mail that can be returned to the Catholic Times, Diocese of Columbus, 197 E. Gay Street, with a check for $17.00 or paid online at the website. Or, drop an envelope marked “Catholic Times” in the regular collection at Mass with name, address and payment.
