From the Pastor's Desk...

To fully appreciate today's Gospel, we need to understand what happened in the narrative before today's reading. Jesus had just finished a serious rebuke of those who criticized John the Baptist for living the life of a hermit, and then in turn criticized Jesus for being too sociable, too available for dinner and good conversation. He also spoke of the towns which had benefitted from His ministry, but then rejected Him and His teaching. Obviously, Jesus is coming to terms with personal rejection.

In the face of these setbacks, Jesus still offers a prayer of thanks to God. This is indeed a difficult prayer to utter, perhaps the hardest of all prayers to speak. In His frustration and feelings of failure, Jesus still finds God and offers Him thanks. Jesus' reliance and trust in His Father remains unshaken, recognizing that God's ways are not always our ways.

Jesus wanted His disciples and us to learn from Him. His mission of proclaiming the Kingdom met opposition and rejection, yet in spite of these difficulties and the burden of perceived failure, He finds God. The self-important, the wise and clever, the self-satisfied and successful do not understand reliance upon God. They remain forever self-absorbed and fiercely convinced of their own security and self-reliance.

In the Gospel – these "little ones," are those who labor hard and are overwhelmed, those on the outside and those life forgets – they are the humble who find their peace in God. They lack all else in life that is important to others, but they do have God. The yoke and burden of Jesus Christ is the sure trust and belief that in spite of all else – God is there. We are invited to understand such a simple formula for life. The faithful disciple has a view of life that the more complicated, more sophisticated can never understand.

Have a good week,
Fr. Bill Arnold

Opening Prayer:

Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time

*O God, who in the abasement of Your Son have raised up a fallen world,
fill Your faithful with holy joy,
for on those You have rescued from slavery to sin
You bestow eternal gladness.
Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.*

“SHARE THE JOY” at the Festival: In order to be good neighbors to the families who live near our church, we want to offer an opportunity for you to give a child an evening to remember! Many families come to our Festival and the children are wide-eyed with excitement when they see the rides. It sometimes becomes apparent that the expense of multiple armbands is too expensive for some families. If you would like to provide an evening of memories for a child/family, you can donate to our “SHARE THE JOY!” initiative. Simply place a donation in an envelope (write “SHARE THE JOY” on the envelope) in the collection basket or drop it off/mail it to the parish office. Each wristband costs $20.00 for an evening of fun. All donations are welcome and will bring smiles to the faces of our neighbors!

Please remember in your prayers all the sick, homebound, or recovering in our parish, especially Ned Braun, Carole Brill, Bernie Comer, Lu & Bob Cudak, Brigitte Dick, Anne Hill, Joann Huffman, Steve & Nancy Sagle, Ron Scherer, and Geri Torr.

Shared Parish Information

Holy Spirit Parish's New Leadership – I received word last week of the names of the new occupants of the parish rectory as of December 1, 2023. That date is, of course, the planned date of my retirement from the active ministry here at Holy Spirit. All three are priests of the Pallottine Order from India.

- Fr. Veevin Richard will be Parochial Vicar (associate pastor) until December 1, on which day he will become Pastor of Holy Spirit Parish (ordained 5/10/2018).
- Fr. Sesu Crescensis will be a full-time chaplain at DeSales High School (ordained 4/16/2021).
- Fr. John Stanislaus will be a full-time hospital chaplain (ordained 5/20/2014).

Produce Market: Our parish will be hosting our Produce Market in the Holy Spirit parking lot this Friday, July 14th. Volunteers are again needed to help set up, distribute and clean up. Set-up will begin about 1:30 p.m., with distribution from 3:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m. Come when you can and work as long as you are able.

Our Faith: See People as God Sees Them! Fear of the stranger and a desire to protect one's own family or community from the unknown are ingrained in human behavior. Yet, these are just a few of the responses that human beings are capable of. From ancient times till today, there is also the tradition to extend hospitality and protection to those who are displaced, homeless or in need.

The Catholic Church is consistent and forthright in support of migrants and refugees, calling all the faithful to welcome and protect them. This support is not the result of a political ideology or agenda, and the Church affirms the right of any country to protect its borders. Yet, the deepest traditions and teachings of Judaism and Christianity encourage us to overcome our fears and aid the poor, the homeless and the stranger.

Additional Holy Spirit Information

Holy Spirit's Annual Festival and Homecoming will be here before you know it! Please mark your calendars for August 10, 11, and 12, 2023. We invite you to come celebrate and support the Parish Festival and Homecoming. The Festival Committee would like to remind you of some ways you can help now:

- ❖ Pray for good weather. Good friends and neighbors come to the Festival when we have wonderful weather for the three nights. Praying for the success of our Parish Festival, especially rain-free weather, is something all of us can do!
- ❖ Sponsorship Opportunities are available. If you own or manage a business, or know someone who does, ask them to be a sponsor for the Festival. For information, call Maureen Dodd at 614-226-4466.
- ❖ The Silent Auction needs your support. Would you like to donate items or gift cards, a special collectible, sports memorabilia, or holiday item which would bring a good price at auction and be a special purchase for the buyer? Cash donations are also welcomed. Donations may be dropped off at the Parish Office.

- ❖ RAFFLE Pick up and Buy/Sell Raffle tickets. They are available in the back of church and at the Parish Office. Extra raffle tickets have been placed at the entrances of Holy Spirit and St. Philip Churches. The grand prize is $1,000.00, second prize is $500.00, and there will be five drawings for $100.00 each. Help support this great cause.

- ❖ Yard Signs Coming Soon. The yard signs advertising our Festival and Homecoming will be available soon in the back of Church. If you have a yard where a sign would be visible for all to see, think of picking one up!

Bake Sale

- ❖ Sweet Shop. Homemade baked goods will be needed for our sweet shop. The date and time to drop off these items will be published closer to the Festival date.
- ❖ A Call for Crafters! This year, we are going to add to our Festival a small Craft Show. We are looking for craft vendors to set up in our social hall. If you know of anyone who would like to set up at our three-day event, please have them contact Tracy Baker at 614-562-4082, or tbaker43230@yahoo.com for information. There will be very limited space available.

NO CATHOLICS OF LEFT OR RIGHT: The following is excerpted from a past article in America Magazine, the national Jesuit weekly magazine. I thought it appropriate to all Catholics to again consider this:

“In the United States, toxic partisanship increasingly colors not only our choices at the ballot box but where we shop, what news we read and even how we see the state of the economy.” Pope Francis [recently] reminded Catholics that such political loyalties have no place in the Catholic Church. “When Christians take sides and form parties,” the pope said, “[we] become Christians of the ‘right’ or the ‘left,’ before being on the side of Jesus.”

“... This is not because Catholics must be apolitical or centrists or should retreat from the public square. But the Church... is not a polis (a political state) but a communion. And in this communion, we are not Democrats or Republicans, liberals or conservatives, citizens or foreigners. We are rather disciples of the one who is truth, the one for whom justice and love are the only standards of human action.”

AROUND THE DIOCESE

Do you love herb tea? Have you ever been curious about how it is made? Come to Shepherd’s Corner on Friday, July 14th from 10:00 a.m. to noon and find out! Mary Rodney, of Seeds Well Sown, will be leading our class entitled, Mary, Not Quite Contrary: Cultivating Culinary and Medicinal Tea Herbs. You will learn how to grow, harvest, and use herbs! There will even be tea tasting! Shepherd’s Corner is located at 987 Waggoner Road in Blacklick, Ohio. You can register for this event by going online at www.shepherdscorner.org and reserving your spot for this educational and tasty experience!

Summer Camps Hosted at Bishop Hartley: Join us this summer for a special camp designed for children who have been diagnosed with a disability, who need support in the areas of communication, social interactions and relationships. The focus will be on general social skills and the specific needs of students at the start of their educational career. The camps will help students work on skills needed to better understand emotions, build friendships, learn expectations of the school setting, and develop confidence in many different social situations. The dates for grades 5-9 are July 10-13; for grades 1-4 the camp will be July 17-20. For questions, please contact Cara Rezabek at crezabek@cducation.org.
