From the Pastor's Desk...

Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to the seeds that the sower scattered. When the sower sows the seeds, he does not know exactly how the seeds grow into mature grain. Even with modern technology, we do not really know how the seeds grow. So also, we cannot force the seeds to grow. All that we can do is plant, wait and see what will grow. We cannot really control all of what we plant. Growth often happens of the earth's own accord. We may help it along now and then, but we can't crack that shell open. We can't replicate those cells or rebuild those roots. We can only make sure of a hospitable atmosphere for growth. A power far beyond us takes care of the rest. So it is with the Kingdom of God.

The kingdom belongs to God and He knows how to grow it. It is not our concern. The problem is, we think that we grow the kingdom we want to be in charge of, and to make things happen. But not with the kingdom of God. Our main task is to sow the seed; to sow the word of God.

Everyone likes to see results. At least most people do. It is so good to see that your efforts have led to some results. It is not so with the Kingdom of God. We are only sent to scatter the seed. The seed will grow on its own without us even noticing. Because it is God's work. It is His kingdom. It may appear disappointing for us. We want to build the kingdom; we want to be in charge. But the Kingdom of God doesn't operate according to our rules and plans. That is why Pope John XXIII, having done what he could during the working hours of the day. He ended each day with a simple prayer: "It's your Church, God. I am going to bed."

We are not responsible for what will happen with the seed. The seed itself has the potential to grow and bear fruit. We are only responsible to sow. Of course, we need to be careful that what we sow in the same seed that Jesus left us to sow. This is where we need to be faithful in proclaiming the gospel of Christ.

Have a wonderful week!
Fr. Veevin Richard

We will have updates in next week's bulletin.

Thoughts on this Father's Day. "Fatherhood" is a broad title, which certainly has many interpretations and nuances. We celebrate and honor today all fathers who have done their job and carried their burdens and responsibilities well. Let's consider in prayer all the dads we want to remember this day:

- Dads who go to work, love their wife, raise their sons and daughters properly, and exhibit genuine self-sacrifice for their families;
- Dads who perform dangerous jobs, have their health affected as a result, or travel great distances to bring home the paycheck;
- Dads who are unemployed and find it difficult to face their families with pride and self-confidence;
- Dads who are far away from home because they choose to serve the in Armed Forces of our country, or because they are incarcerated in prisons because of the sentence they received;
- Dads who genuinely struggle to see their children and make genuine, honest efforts to make support payments because of a divorce from their children's mother;
- Importantly, we remember dads who, because of their human flaws, failed in their duties and could not measure up to the "ideal dad" everyone would like to have; we pray for forgiveness, understanding and healing.
- We pray for all dads who are deceased. May God grant them the reward of their goodness and rest from their labors.

Greetings brothers and sisters of Holy Spirit! I wanted to provide everyone with an update regarding my diaconate formation.

I am currently completing my spring classes (Catholic Social Teaching, and The History of the Catholic Church in America) and finishing Mass practicums, where we are learning to serve as a deacon in the sanctuary during liturgies, especially the Mass. This July, I will complete a 5-day silent retreat. My ordination to the diaconate will take place on Saturday morning, August 10th, with Bishop Fernandes presiding.

Following ordination, Bishop Fernandes has assigned me to St. Pius X Parish in Reynoldsburg to begin my ministry as a deacon. While I am excited for this assignment, I am also saddened to be leaving the good people of Holy Spirit. My internship at Holy Spirit will conclude on June 16th.

I wanted to thank Fr. Richard, Deacon George Zimmerman and his wife Kathy, Fr. Arnold, Sister Carol, the entire parish staff, and all of the parishioners of Holy Spirit for your prayers and encouragement. I am so grateful for your hospitality, kindness, instruction, and patience during these last 18 months. I have grown spiritually and learned lots of practical knowledge through hands-on activities at Holy Spirit. Whenever anyone asks me about my internship, a smile immediately comes to my face as I explain how wonderful and accommodating this parish community is and how fruitful my experience has been. Lastly, I wanted to thank all of you for a gift that Father Richard and Holy Spirit gave me to commemorate my ordination; I was given a beautiful alb with "Alpha and Omega" stitched in lace in the sleeves and along the bottom. Every time I vest in this alb, I will remember the people of Holy Spirit and you will be with me as I proclaim the Gospel and serve at the altar. I will continue to keep all of you in my prayers and would ask the same from you for me and my family.

May God bless all of you abundantly.

In Christ,
Deacon candidate Michael Berger

Please remember in your prayers:

Donald Hooker, 63, who died Monday, June 3, 2024. Don was a parishioner of Holy Spirit. Calling hours, including a prayer service, were June 7, 2024 at Egan Ryan Funeral Home on East Broad Street. Please keep Donald and his family in your prayers.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen
